

Problem 1

(a)

52

(b)

$$(n - 1)a + \lceil \log_2 m \rceil b$$

(c)

Because when `n--;` is executed, it first return `n` then perform minus operation on `n`, so every time the function is called the parameter is `n`, and the recursion will never end.